

How blessed are all those

Psalm one

Words by Mark Shipp

Music by Konstantin Zhigulin

The musical score is written in 4/4 time with a key signature of one flat (Bb). It features a Soprano (s.) and Alto (a.) part in the upper staff and Tenor (t.) and Bass (b.) parts in the lower staff. The lyrics are distributed across the staves, with some lines starting with a double slash (//) indicating a continuation from a previous page. The score includes a repeat sign at the beginning of the first system and a 'Start by tenor and bass only:' instruction. The lyrics are: //by night. //be - half. Start by tenor and bass only: How bles-sed are all those who do not walk in sin, nor And they are like a tree by streams of wa - ters found; They The wick-ed will not stand, nor shall trans-gres-sors stay in do they stand in sin - ners' paths, nor do they sit with them; But yield their fruit in seas - on and in right-eous-ness a - bound.
